

Patricia A. Rubin, CPA

Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer

Patricia Rubin joined LifeGift in 1997 and serves as executive vice president and chief financial officer. Rubin's background includes more than 20 years in leadership roles in healthcare organizations and three years in public accounting. She is a highly motivated professional who values excellence and is results oriented.

Rubin received her bachelor of science degree in accounting from Rider College in Lawrenceville, New Jersey, in 1979. She became a certified public accountant in Texas in 1985.